

PEOs of Civil Engineering Department

- I Graduates will demonstrate technical competence and leadership by analyzing, designing and executing Civil Engineering Structures using current techniques and tools.

- II Graduates will be successful as professional engineers, academicians, researchers, consultants and entrepreneurs in the field of Civil Engineering.

- III Graduates will communicate effectively as individual or team members and be successful Civil Engineers in the local and global environment.

- IV Graduates will demonstrate lifelong learning through continuing education and professional development.